Week of March 21st

Greetings I'On At Home members,

Welcome to SPRING 2021!

A very rough winter is over and now we have Daylight Savings Time, Covid shots, warmer weather and something you really deserve...an exciting list of upcoming IAH outdoor events. You hung in there and we sincerely appreciate all the encouragement and support that you've given us.

Thank you from your IAH Board of Directors, Committee Chairs and Volunteers.

Did you miss our seminar on Lawn Care & Maintenance Tips?

It's not too late to see the second in the series of gardening seminars presented by Chris Burtt of the Charleston County Clemson Extension Service.

Be sure to sign up for Chris's March 31st seminar on dealing with pests in your garden and around your house.

Here's what's happening the rest of the month:

March 23 at 10:30AM - 12:30PM

Calling All I'On at Home Artists!

Does creating art and enjoying beautiful Spring weather with new friends sound interesting to you? Then join our new "En Plein Air Painting" group.

You don't have to be a Claude Monet. All experience levels are welcome including those who just want to come by and check it out. We'll be meeting on the east shore of West Lake.

Cocktails and Conversations is a great way for members, especially if you are new to IAH, to meet others in the IAH community.

Groups of no more than six people meet for cocktails outdoors on a member's porch or patio. Everyone brings their own drinks and snacks. Seating is arranged to allow for social distancing. It's a safe but enjoyable way to meet new people and enjoy lively conversation.

March 30 at 3PM - 4PM
Government, Politics and Law

Back by popular demand, our IAH panel of expertise on Government, Politics and Law, will discuss issues related to Voting Rights and the related outbursts of Domestic Terrorism. The panel will include Brady Anderson, Ben Tenille, Bill Sage, and Tom Martin, who will also serve as Moderator. If you are interested in these topics, this is not an event to be missed. There will be time for questions and answers from participants.
