Week of April 11th

Greetings I'On At Home members,

We are pleased to announce that Mary Holtz will be joining I'On At Home as its new part-time Administrative Manager. Mary and her husband live in I'On having moved from Chicago last October. More on Mary in next week's issue. Welcome Mary!

*Have a good week,
Peg Higgins
President*

Here's what's happening this week:

April 12 Chamber Music Charleston 4:30 - 6:00PM
Fanelli/Mooney Garden, 54 Fernandina Street

Celebrate Spring and the beginning of live performances for our I'On at Home members! You will want to join us for an intimate performance by Chamber Music Charleston in the Fanelli's lovely garden. Enjoy the wonderful string music of Gershwin and Mozart, while sipping a glass of wine. Please bring your own chairs, but we will supply the wine!

Sorry, there are no more spots available for this event. Please join the waiting list and you will be notified if a spot becomes available.

Rain Date is April 14.

April 13 at 10:30AM - 12:30PM
En Plein Air Painting with Myrto Tsavalas

Does creating art and enjoying beautiful Spring weather with new friends sound interesting to you? Then join our new "En Plein Air Painting" group.

You don't have to be a Claude Monet. All experience levels are welcome including those who just want to come by and check it out.

We'll be meeting at the South Canal on Westlake.
