

Dear IAH Members:

We're pleased to welcome back Diego Suarez who will be performing a recital of Bach, Beethoven, Liszt, and Ravel at an indoor concert at Joe and Cathy Fanelli's home on May 21st. Following the recital, you'll meet Diego and socialize with other IAH members over a glass of wine in the Fanelli's courtyard.

Diego, a native of Costa Rica, began playing piano at age of 8 at the School of Musical Arts, University of Costa Rica. He holds a BS from the College of Charleston, a Master's from Shenandoah Conservatory and is currently pursuing his PhD at the Hugh Hodgson School of Music, University of Georgia. Diego has performed internationally and has won numerous awards. Those IAH members who attended his performance last year can attest to his ability to captivate an audience.

Diego is playing for our members for free. In lieu of a fee for this event, we would encourage participants to make a donation of any amount to Diego on the day of the performance to help defray his graduate school expenses.

Other special IAH Events happening this week:
Irish Whiskey Tasting - May 17th

Please join Don Wilbur and George Watt, for the best whiskeys Ireland has to offer and a unique experience.

CLICK HERE to see the latest information on upcoming IAH events and programs.