

A community of friends enjoying enriched, vibrant and independent lives together

Dear I'On At Home Members,

Look above and see who got a head start on the Thanksgiving holiday. Host Barbara Fowler was joined by Barbara Cole, Carol Degnen, Kathi Haas, Mary Kaplan, Lydia Engelhardt, Lucy Scribner and Andrea Rosseaux for a Thanksgiving bouquet party. No supermarket arrangements for these folks!

Once again, Cheryl and Bob Pitts graciously opened their beautiful home so twenty IAH friends could celebrate and share Thanksgiving together. It was a wonderful time and a great way to kick off the holiday season. Thank you, Cheryl and Bob!

Coming up in the next 3 weeks are our Annual Holiday Celebration and two private musical performances. The response has been fantastic, so much so that we expanded the attendance for Holiday Celebration from 60 to 80 members. There still are a few places available. Both music events are fully subscribed, but please sign up for the waitlist if you are interested in attending. Spots do open, so be optimistic.

A note to members who are registered for an event:

We know that this is a busy time of year and schedules change. If you cannot attend an event, go to the IAH website as soon as possible and let us know in the "Conversation About This Event" box.

Your friends on the waitlists will appreciate it.

Dec 3 - A private recital by Diego Suarez, internationally acclaimed pianist, performing Ravel's Miroirs and Chopin's 24 Preludes.

Diego Suarez, a native of Costa Rica, began playing piano at age of 8 at the School of Musical Arts, University of Costa Rica. He holds a BS from the College of Charleston and Master's from Shenandoah Conservatory. He is currently pursuing his PhD at the Hugh Hodgson School of Music, University of Georgia.

Diego has performed internationally and has won numerous awards. Those IAH members who attended his performance last year can attest to his ability to captivate an audience.

The recital, being held at the home of Cathy Mooney and Joe Fanelli, will be approximately an hour followed by a chance to meet Diego and socialize with other IAH members over a glass of wine.

Dec 7 - Cable, Satellite, Internet, Streaming - OH My!

Since the 1950's television has provided news and kept us entertained. Many of us enjoy live TV, movies, series and sports from the comfort of our living rooms. (This was especially true during COVID!)

In recent years, TV technology has changed dramatically and it's difficult to keep up. Trying to understand the myriad of choices is a real challenge. Join us for another tech talk with Jamey Mellis who will help us understand the advantages and disadvantages of cable, satellite, internet and streaming options.

How to choose? How much will it cost? Is it safe? How to determine what's best for me? Bring your questions to what should be another enlightening talk with an expert.

Dec 10 - The Annual IAH Holiday Celebration Party

Start the holiday season and get into the festive spirit by joining neighbors and friends at our annual I'On At Home Holiday Celebration Party! Jane Sheahan has graciously opened her beautiful home where we will find holiday drinks and hors d'oeuvres, mistletoe and good cheer!

Dec 15 - A private performance by the Charleston Symphony Orchestra's String Quartet rings in the holiday season.

Join us for the IAH musical celebration of the season. CSO's Concert Master and Artistic Director, Yuriy Bekker, along with three other first chair string players will perform a private Christmas concert for I'On At Home members at the home of Carol & Steve Degnen. This intimate celebration is sure to put you into the holiday mood.
