

A community of friends enjoying enriched, vibrant and independent lives together

Dear IAH Members, Meet Bob Hardie, your new IAH President

I am delighted and honored to serve as President of the I'On at Home Board for 2023. We have an outstanding slate of Board Members, combining returning veterans with new leaders, positioning us to build on the excellent accomplishments of our past Board. Thanks to their leadership, we weathered the challenges of the pandemic, continued to provide a full calendar of creative and enjoyable programs, and met member demands with our volunteer services group. We now enjoy our largest membership ever and a healthy financial position.

On a personal note, Gail and I have called I'On home for twelve years, and are continually reminded of why we decided to live here. It's a great neighborhood for people of all ages. Since its founding six years ago, I'On at Home has focused on the interests and needs of the 55+ segment of our larger community. As described on our Website, "We're a group of over 150 I'On friends committed to living interesting, enriched and independent lives together."

I look forward to continuing our journey together in 2023.

Editors Note: The photos in today's masthead illustrate Bob's rise from a volunteer IAH handyman to the exalted position as our president. FYI, the salaries for both positions are the same.
