

A community of friends enjoying enriched, vibrant and independent lives together

Dear IAH Members, Meet Jayne Eastman, your new IAH Vice President

I am happy to be joining the dynamic and dedicated team on the IAH Board as Vice President. As Bob Hardie has communicated, our organization is in great shape, both in terms of capabilities to serve our growing membership and in financial stability. This is therefore an opportune year to build on our success and try to add even more value to our community. I will certainly try to do so.

Personally, my husband Bill Gangi and I built our home on the corner of Latitude and Faye over 13 years ago. We love having a close up view of much that is going on in I'On, since our corner of West Lake is really popular with speed walkers, slow walkers, dog and baby walkers, bikers, joggers, and kids at top speeds (mostly). Wave when you go by or stop in if you like - we love company! We originally moved to Mount Pleasant from Manhattan in 1995 in search of a family friendly environment when I retired for the first time.

Professionally, I have been a marketing and business strategist for Fortune 500 companies, a top NY advertising agency, and the leading business consultancy in the world - essentially studying consumer behavior - for more decades that I care to mention. I am not quite retired yet, but my best work is as wife to Bill for 40+ years, mother to Alex and Wesley, step-mom to Cris and August, and grandmother to 6 human kids and 6 canine ones.
