

A community of friends enjoying enriched, vibrant and independent lives together

Dear IAH Members,
Meet Elizabeth Hazard and Mary Kaplan, Co-Chairs of IAH's Programs Committee

Elizabeth Hazard

We moved to I'On 2020 after having lived downtown on and off since 2003. Right away, we joined I'On at Home and were thrilled at how quickly we met people and how the community embraced us even during COVID.

Soon afterwards, Bob Hardie and I became Co-Chairs of the Programs Committee, and it's been a delight to take part in the amazing events hosted by the committee.

This year Mary Kaplan is joining me as Co-Chair, along with several great new committee members. Already the creative juices are flowing, and 2023 is going to be an exciting year with many fabulous new offerings, including the impressive CHOICES line up. Hope you will sign up for lots of events. Also, as we work hard to accommodate everyone, we very much appreciate it if you sign up early so we can plan effectively. Some events have limited capacity, so if you've signed up by then, for some reason, can't make it, please let us know promptly, so we can pull people from the waitlist.

Mary Kaplan

My tenure on the IAH Board began four years ago, when I took over as chair of volunteer services. When an opening became available to chair Membership, I happily moved in for two years. And now, after a year's retirement from the Board, I couldn't resist the call to return, to co-chair Programs. That decision was helped along by the knowledge that there was a diverse and resourceful group of committee members already in place, spearheaded by Elizabeth Hazard.

Fred and I moved to l'On in 2012, from Baltimore and Manhattan respectively. In Manhattan, I had a 20 year career working for Christie's Auction House, helping clients from around the world, acquire treasures. It was akin to working in a museum where the art changed almost daily. It was not a hard decision, however, to leave NYC, where I had been living since college, and where I raised my two sons. The life here is gentler, more aesthetically beautiful, and friendlier. We are extremely happy campers, enjoying this chapter in our lives.

How To Run a TikTok-Famous Bodega in Brooklyn

Meet Mohamed. He manages a bodega in Red Hook, Brooklyn, where he stocks shelves, cleans up spills and serves sandwiches from the griddle. But he's also a big deal on TikTok, where more than two million followers watch him come up with wild sandwich combinations for his never-ending stream of customers. Bodegas are the lifeblood of New York City, but what does it take to run one – especially when it's famous on TikTok?
