

We're in good shape!!

A community of friends enjoying enriched, vibrant and independent lives together

Greetings I'On At Home members,

As Treasurer of I'On at Home, I am pleased to report that the organization is in excellent financial position. Since its launch in 2016, the Board has been extremely diligent in keeping administrative expenses to a bare minimum such that over 90% of dues collected are available to fund programs and services for our membership.

Given our increasing membership and strong annual renewals, our annual revenues have exceeded our total expenditures. Thus, we have been able to build a reserve which will ensure continuity even in an economic downturn. Further, the Board's conservative financial planning has enabled the organization to operate for over seven years with no increase in dues. Nor are there any plans to increase dues in the near term future.

You should also be aware that our records are audited annually in conjunction with our IRS and state of South Carolina non-profit filings. In addition we periodically have our external accountant conduct a compliance audit to ensure that we operate under sound financial controls and ethics. The results of these audits as well as any other significant financial matters are vetted with our Finance Committee comprised of four IAH members with financial expertise. They include Anne Register, George Watt, Amy Minella and Stephan Christiansen.

We also maintain liability insurance to ensure the organization is adequately covered. The Board consults with both our insurer and legal counsel when appropriate to ensure that new programs / services are structured in a way which minimizes any legal liability.

You can be assured our Board is dedicated to providing programs and services which meet the needs of our membership in at the most cost effective manner and provide for the financial stability of our organization.
