

A community of friends enjoying enriched, vibrant and independent lives together

Hello From the Programs Committee

Hope you're having an awesome summer! After a wildly busy series of events this spring, we are a bit quieter this summer. But watch out, we already have a great lineup of events for the fall.

We are happy to introduce you to our innovative and creative team of Programs Committee members, who brainstorm monthly and refine events for our members.

This Spring, we introduced, "Anytime Friends" – the group bringing singles together to create new friendships, share ideas, and plan fun events. Chaired by Janet Gertz and Mary Swenson, its goal is to facilitate get-togethers, either spontaneously or planned, using Group Me as its facilitator.

Here are two very special Fall events that you will not want to miss. The Charleston Opera Theatre is performing Opera's Greatest Hits, at a member's home on September 8th, featuring arias from our favorite operas. On October 12th, there will be a guided tour of the International African American Museum. This tour coincides with a new installation by Fletcher Williams called 'When it Rains it Pours'. He constructed a labyrinth of memories, rituals and hideaways using sculpture, sound and light."

Due to the popularity of this event, we hope to add a second tour. Please add your name to the wait list!

Ideas for new events are gratefully received. Do you have a connection with an organization that lends itself to an interesting event, lecture, or field trip? Perhaps YOU have an expertise or a hobby that you would like to share with your neighbors. In the past, members have given talks on architecture, travel safety, education, meteorology, making limoncello, to name a few.

You don't have to be on the committee to suggest an activity. Just contact one of us!

Don't forget to check the list of upcoming events each week!

*With gratitude to this awesome community and organization. You all are the best!
We love planning events for you!*
